

The Nunda Historical Society Presents...

Music Masterpieces in Miniature

A “Musica Curiosa” Presentation by Dennis James

Sunday April 27
2:30 PM

Trinity Church
25 East Street
Nunda NY

Free & Open to the Public
Donations Appreciated

Join renowned musician and historian Dennis James for a captivating journey into the world of miniature and toy instruments. Blending performance with storytelling, James showcases rare and whimsical pieces from his personal collection—like the Scottish Dulcetone, Italian Salterio, and Marxophone — revealing their surprising roles in music history. This fun, family-friendly program promises history, humor, and music all in one unforgettable afternoon! For more information call 585-465-0971 or go to nundahistory.org.

This presentation is made possible with funds from the Aid to Localities Program through the Genesee Valley Council on the Arts.

